

Disseminating the Tool and Guide

Form and Ways to use the Tool and Guide in the German Context

Overview: AVE-Applications in Germany/Hessen

1. TG: Older long term unemployed people

- Envisaged cooperation partner/funding institution:
 - City of Offenbach and  MainArbeit GmbH

- Task/Target:
 - Measure and evaluate the acquirement of skills and competences by older long term unemployed who took up volunteering as a means of activation

- Procedures/Working methods:
 - Ex ante/ex post measurement of skills and competences of older unemployed people taking up volunteering, interviews will be carried out by a professional personal adviser

2. TG: Young volunteers

- Envisaged cooperation partner/funding institution:

- City of Francfort am Main

- Task/Target:

- Designing and implementing a certificate for young volunteers living in the city of Francfort in order to facilitate labour market access

- Procedures/Working methods:

- Adopting the AVE tool to the specific requirements of the City of Francfort

3. TG: Volunteers with a migration background

- Envisaged cooperation partner/funding institution:
 - Federal Ministry of Education and Research and

- Task/Target:
 - Measure and evaluate the acquirement of skills and competences by volunteers with a migration background as a means of social and labour market integration

- Procedures/Working methods:
 - Due to language problems interviewing method not yet determined

4. TG: Mothers aiming at re-entering labour market

■ Envisaged cooperation partner/funding institution:

- Social Ministry State of Hessen

Hessisches
Sozialministerium

■ Task/Target:

- Using the AVE results state-wide to assess competences acquired through volunteering in a mother-centre and thus demonstrate the value of mother-centres as a field of learning (as a good publicity for the organisations)

■ Procedures/Working methods:

- Conducting a workshop to enable representatives of mother-centres to apply the tool and act as a coach, state-wide statistical analysis of results.

Further contacts

- Beyond we contact at least
 - 10 business organisations (e.g. BASF, Bertelsmann,...)
 - 10 NGOs (e.g. ASB, AWO, ...)
 - 10 governmental organisations (federal and statewide)

to disseminate our tool.

Finally

Thank you for your attention.